POLICY TITLE: Non-degree seeking LL.M students
APPLIES TO: CAS <input type="checkbox"/> CPA <input type="checkbox"/> LAW <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> MSB <input type="checkbox"/>
SPECIFIC PROGRAM (if applicable): Non-Degree Seeking Track for LL.M. in the Law of the United States (LOTUS)
PROPOSED IMPLEMENTATION DATE / SEMESTER: Summer 2014

I. Statement of Purpose

To admit former LL.M. LOTUS students, as non-degree seeking students, so that they can supplement their legal training with Maryland Bar tested courses since foreign trained lawyers are now eligible to sit for the Maryland Bar exam.

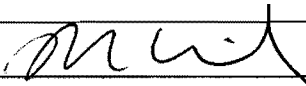

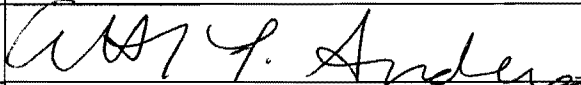

II. Current Policy (If proposal is a revision or discontinuance) It can be attached if too lengthy. Include date of original adoption if available. There is currently no current policy to admit former LL.M LOTUS students as non-degree seeking students.

III. Proposed Policy (including authority for policy waiver, exclusions, or sanctions, if any) can be attached if too lengthy.

To admit former LL.M. LOTUS students, , as non-degree seeking students, so that they can supplement their legal training with Maryland Bar tested courses since foreign trained lawyers are now eligible to sit for the Maryland Bar exam. Students would pay LL.M. LOTUS pricing for credits as if they were a part-time student.

IV. Other (who was consulted, definition of terms, etc.)

We have consulted with the Registrar's Office and determined this is the best solution to allow former LL.M LOTUS students to take classes that will allow them to sit for the Maryland Bar exam.
